

Central Europe

Please pray for:

- Continuing visa issues in the Czech Republic.

Praise report:

- Evangelism training for youth in the Czech Republic was very successful. About 55 youth, ages 13-20, went out on the streets and started street preaching. Some were even able to pray with people right on the spot. Other people came to church the following Sunday to hear more.

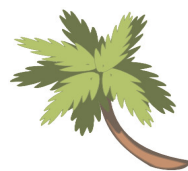

Culturally Diverse Communities (CDC)

Please pray for:

- A Muslim seeker who has made contact requesting Bible studies. May he find the Savior.
- The development of the Pentecostal European Mission committee focusing on least reached people groups.
- The outreach to Turkish Muslims in France and Germany this summer.

Praise reports:

- Praise God for provision of funds to continue operation for several cultural centers reaching out to Muslims in Europe.

- Praise God for 100 new Muslims attending services in a city in Spain as a result of a Convoy of Hope Europe outreach.

Northern Europe

Please pray for:

- Bill and Ky Prevette (England) as Bill recently underwent surgery for gallstones.
- Phil and Katja Zarns (Sweden) who are in desperate need for housing in the Stockholm area.
- Bryan and Misty Elliot (Wales) and Brandon and Melissa Newman (Scotland) as they work to raise funds as new missionaries to Northern Europe.
- The upcoming World Pentecostal Fellowship meetings to be held the end of this month in Stockholm, Sweden.

Praise reports:

- Michael and Debra McCabe (Ireland) have received a great opportunity to work with the deaf translation of the Alpha Course.
- Derry, Northern Ireland reports a great outreach with various AG ministries involved.

Southeastern Europe

Please pray for:

- Continued wisdom in reaching out to Albanians in Macedonia. May there be cooperative fellowship among all the missionaries and nationals working together in Macedonia.

Praise report:

- The Pentecostal Union in Bulgaria recently held its General Council meeting to elect a new general superintendent. The previous leader, Victor Virchev, had served with distinction for the past twenty years, since the days after the fall of communism. The new leader, Ivan Vrachev, has a great burden and vision to see the church grow throughout Bulgaria—submitted by missionary Stuart Ross (Bulgaria).

Southern Europe

Please pray for:

- International Bible school students attending Global University classes in Rome.
- Plans to purchase property currently being rented by International Christian Fellowship, a work under the direction of missionaries Mike & Loretta Hopkins (Italy).
- Nadine Fabbri (Spain), and those who minister alongside her, to be able to follow up faithfully with the contacts made during a recent campus outreach.

- Kurtis Denton's (Italy), mother, Jean, who has been in the hospital and was unconscious for several days. They are trying to determine the cause. Please pray for a healing touch and guidance of the physicians.

Praise reports:

- International Christian Fellowship in Rome, Italy, began studying the Book of Acts in April, both with the Sunday preaching and in Life Groups during the week. The pastors and church are praying for a new spiritual awakening to the power and effectiveness of the Acts Church. Many have been baptized in the Holy Spirit and many refilled with new power for witnessing.
- The Chi Alpha team from Ft. Collins, CO, was a big success in Sevilla, Spain. Many contacts were made on the university campus, and some really deep spiritual conversations took place.

Western Europe

Please pray for:

- Judy Mensch's (Netherlands) eye. A hemorrhage is hampering her vision.
- David and Phyllis Porter (France) as they assist with a new church plant in Epernay, France.
- The Bastogne, Belgium church plant being led by Kerby and Sheila Rials.

- The Damascus Road International Church project being led by Kent and Leslie Linneweh in Maastricht, the Netherlands.
- The Bridge International Church project and the Bridge team on the western side of Paris.
- The Greens (Netherlands) and Gravelys (Belgium), new missionaries raising funds for ministry in Western Europe.
- Scott and Debbie Reynolds as they continue to seek a residence permit for Belgium.

The Lord is near to all who call on him, to all who call on him in truth.

Psalm 145:18

